HHS LAW DAY

Beena Koshy is one of the most highly-regarded figures on the national debate circuit. As a high school student at Apple Valley High School in Minnesota, she was a state champion in speech and a state finalist in debate. After graduating from the University of Minnesota with a B.A. in Sociology in 2003, Ms. Koshy served as the Director of Debate at Sacred Heart High School in Kingston, Massachusetts until 2008. While there, she coached two state champions, a national runner-up, and the champions of the Yale and Columbia tournaments.

Ms. Koshy has also trained corporate employees in public speaking, and currently works for the National Forensic League, compiling research on middle school forensics programs. We are fortunate to have Ms. Koshy join us to lead today's persuasive speaking workshop and demonstration debate round.
