

AP Economics Review

In preparation for the AP exam we will be holding review sessions after school on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Both Wednesday and Thursday will be the same review so if one day conflicts with a different class, you can choose to come the other day offered. Each week will be a focused theme. Throughout the 4 weeks, you will be reintroduced to major vocabulary and themes as well as receive the opportunity to practice AP style questions on those particular topics. The week of the exam, which will be held on May 13th, will be an opportunity for you to schedule individual appointments to clarify specific topics of your choice.
